THANK YOU TO OUR CONFERENCE SPONSORS:

The University of Alabama at Birmingham

(VENUE) Our unique location in the bustling heart of Alabama's economic center allows our faculty to integrate the practical experiences of the State's leading companies - from Fortune 500 corporations to entrepreneurial startups - into every business program we offer. Year-round internship and other applied learning experiences allow students to build solid resumes to help set themselves apart. That's the advantage of being in an innovative and entrepreneurial city where the experiences outside the classroom are as varied and as educational as those inside it.

For more information, visit <https://www.uab.edu/business/home/>.

(LUNCH) Stukent is a digital courseware provider focused on improved education through digital, up-to-date textbooks, real-world simulations and other instructional resources to help educators help students help the world. In addition to being named the #268 fastest-growing company in America by Inc. 500, Stukent is the company behind the DECA, FBLA, and BPA Social Media Marketing Challenges. For more information on Stukent's high school and higher ed courseware, visit stukent.com.

(GRAND DOOR PRIZE) Knowledge Matters is the leading provider of cloud-based, educational simulations for business and personal finance. Its Virtual Business line of simulations have been used in over one-third of all the high schools in the United States and its ProSim line of advanced simulations are used by leading universities globally. Knowledge Matters is also the company behind the DECA, FBLA, and BPA Virtual Business Challenges. For more information on Knowledge Matters' high school and higher ed courseware, visit knowledgematters.com.

(BREAKFAST, SNACK AND WATER) One of the region's largest accounting & advisory firms. *Whether we are serving a public company, a nonprofit, a private company or a governmental entity, Warren Averett has the industry and service expertise to help you thrive.
